

FUNCTIONAL SKILLS SCREENING INVENTORY: ENVIRONMENTAL EDITION

17 point scoring scale (print for Reporter to use when assessing placement- classroom, home. etc.)

- 0 points (0%) mean that this skill is never used in this setting or environment. The skill is not important at any time in this setting.
- .25 points means that this skill is rarely used but may be called upon in this setting with total use of prompting, physical guidance, or step-by-step monitoring.
- .50 points means that this skill is used on occasion but could be called upon in this setting which requires prompting and monitoring.
- .75 points means that this skill is used but is not a central component in this environment but if used it would need prompting, supervision, and tracking.
- 1 point (25%) means that this skill is used some time in this setting, but support is required to assure the effective use of this skill.
- 1.25 points means that this skill is used in this setting some time with supports and supervision to meet the requirements of the environment.
- 1.50 points means that this skills is needed in this setting even if reminders are required and supervision is needed
- 1.75 points means that this skill is needed in this setting almost half of the time with prompting and supports needed.
- 2 points (50%) means that this skill is needed at least half of the time in this setting with some support and/or supervision necessary to assure effective use of the skill.
- 2.25 points means that this skill is used at lest half of the time with decreased support or supervision to assure effective use of this skill to complete tasks.
- 2.50 points means that the skill is used often in this environment and some support or supervision is required to assure effective use of the skill to complete tasks.
- 2.75 points means that the skill is used most of the time and some support or supervision continues to be needed to assure effective use of the skill.
- 3.00 points (75%) means that this skill is used in this setting most of the time. Minimal support or supervision is expected to help with completion of tasks.
- 3.25 points means that this skills is needed in this setting and may need some support, reminders, or prompting to complete the use of the skill.
- 3.50 points means that this skill is needed in this setting and is done with independent function by the person most of the time.
- 3.75 points means that this skill is needed in this setting and independent function is necessary with minimal reminders or prompts or scheduling.
- 4 points (100%) means that this skill is expected at all times in this setting. Supervision, support or reminding is not required for the person to use this skill independently.